RÈGLEMENT

The fifth International Piano Competition will take place in the Mayenne Conservatory Ivan Bellocq (playoffs), and the Théâtre de Mayenne (final) on Friday 13, Saturday 14 and Sunday, April 15, 2012.
The competition is open to pianists of all nationalities under the age of 30 years on 1 January 2012.
Registration forms should be sent before March 10, 2012.
The jury will be composed of the music world and its decisions are final.

Candidates will present them in an order determined by lot.
The competition includes two events: the playoffs and finals.

The management of the competition reserves the right to authorize the recording
ment radio and television broadcasting of the sessions of the competition and to make the recording any audio or video, for the benefit of international piano competition.

If one of the candidates turn out to be a student member of the jury, it will not participate in the rating.
Applicants are not entitled to any fee or right. In the event of insufficient participants, management reserves the right to cancel the contest. In contrast, a selection will be made on the record if the number of participants proved too large (35 can-plications maximum).

A receipt will be sent to each candidate. Travel expenses and accommodation are the responsibility of the candidates. By registering, applicants accept the contest rules and agree to participate in all the tests and accept the decisions of the jury. Candidates will benefit from free for the recital on Friday.

Financial Condition:

- 70€ registration fee (check or postal money order for candidates residing abroad, payable to Piano Forte).
- A security deposit of € 85 payable on the day of participation.
